

provide property requirements

The goal of finding a home that meets your needs means that you and your agent need to clearly understand what you are looking for. The critical information that you and your agent need to know includes

- What type of property do you want to buy?
 - single-family home
 - condo
 - loft
 - multi-unit building

- What neighborhood do you want to buy in?
 - San Francisco has nine primary neighborhoods or districts that are further divided in to many sub- districts.
 - In choosing a neighborhood to live in, driving and walking around the area are excellent ways to get to know it. Your real estate agent can also provide you information about the various neighborhoods that might interest you.

- How much do you want to spend?
- How many bedrooms and bathrooms do you want?
- What are your parking requirements?
-
- What other amenities are you looking for?
 -
 - Hardwood floors
 - Fireplace
 - Views
 - Gourmet kitchen
 - Other